HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, Life is a moment that passes too briefly when four score and ten; our colleague's shorter still. But in his abbreviated life, although taken from us while in the prime of manhood, James A. Hairgrove (Jim to us) contributed to this land and we are better for having walked with him; and

WHEREAS, Jim Hairgrove served in the United States Navy during World War II, attended Sam Houston State College, worked most of his adult life in the radio broadcasting business, owning radio station KBRZ in Freeport when he left us, serving with distinction in the 60th Legislature, District 20F; and

WHEREAS, Jim Hairgrove possessed rare and excellent human qualities and was a beloved friend to us all and a contributor to our community; he knew the poet's advice, "and this, above all, to thine ownself be true," and it followed, in his life as the night follows day, he "was false to no man." He was one of Nature's true gentlemen; and

WHEREAS, Our hearts go out to Sue, who survives, and his children, Anita (Mrs. Charles Lewis) and Robert; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, ^{By} That the House of Representatives of the 60th Legislature, Regular Session, the Senate concurring, That we recognize not only his passing but tell of this gentle and gentlemanly life, that copies of this Resolution be sent to Sue and the children as a token of the sympathy so deeply felt and that the Legislature, when it adjourns today, it do so in memory of our friend and colleague, Representative James A.
